

★ NATIONAL HARBOR ★

A One-of-One Destination

National Harbor is Washington D.C.'s backyard: a fully activated waterfront destination that seamlessly integrates dining, entertainment, retail, hospitality, residential and Class A office at one remarkable address, occupying 350 acres along the Potomac River.

Year-round events and a waterfront design create dwell time, and dwell time drives revenue.

The experiential DNA of the property is a built-in advantage for every operator.

The Next Generation of Dining & Entertainment Starts Here

The National Harbor customer base—conventioners with expense accounts, hotel guests with high disposable incomes, and our well-educated and affluent residential base—is precisely who is driving demand for the next great experience.

They are seeking experience-forward F&B concepts, immersive entertainment and competitive socializing.

Convention and meeting planners regularly execute full buyouts, making adjacency to the Gaylord one of the most valuable positions in the market.
